

It has come to my attention that Banks in Indiana want to start disturbing citizens by being made exempt from Indiana's Do-Not-Call law. This should be prevented. Why should they be given preference over other telemarketers? Please insure the banks DO NOT get an exemption. Thank you.